

@ Reptile House

ACTIVITY: All About Snakes

Read the signs and complete the following.

1. State the difference between the reported length of the anaconda and the actual estimated length.

Reported length: _____ (m)

Actual estimated length: _____ (m)

Difference in length: _____ (m)

2. The longest snake in the world is the _____ and the heaviest snake in the world is the _____.

3. The largest anaconda displayed in the Singapore Zoo is _____m long and weighs _____ kg.

Given the myths about snakes in the table below, fill in the facts.

MYTHS	FACTS
1. Snakes have wet and slimy skin.
2. All snakes are venomous.
3. All snakes have fangs.
4. Snakes dance to the sound of music.
5. All snakes shed their skin in a single piece.	